Agenda

Welcome + team formation As guests enter the virtual room, hosts extend a warm welcome, setting the perfect ambiance for this exciting dual competition/celebration. To kickstart the event, players will gather in breakout rooms, where they will form teams, select a name, and appoint a team reporter. This phase not only establishes a clear structure but also fosters seamless group dynamics. (Pro tip - Get those creative juices flowing and come up with an on-theme name for a chance to earn bonus points!)	10 minutes
Women's History Quizardy This fast-paced quiz competition has teams facing off to recall facts in a broad range of topics. First, teams will huddle in breakout rooms to strategize about which categories they want to select. Then, players reconvene in the main room, and each team will get a chance to choose questions and work together to answer quickly. If teams fail to respond correctly in time, other teams will be able to steal points! This game is a great way for team members to get a glimpse into their coworkers' areas of expertise beyond the office.	15 minutes
Triangle Inspired by the game show Pyramid, participants will have to make their way up the triangle by choosing their words correctly! Each team will choose a champion and the champion must relay the correct woman-related nouns to their team. The farther teams make it up the triangle, the more points they will earn! This activity is an excellent communication exercise.	15 minutes
Hidden Figures A game of "Guess Who" with plenty of girl power. Teams split into breakout rooms with a board filled with photos of iconic women from various periods in history (including modern times.) Every round, the host gives players a starting word as a hint. Teammates must work together to ask strategic questions and narrow down the options. Groups earn points based on how quickly they guess the correct formidable female! This exercise helps teams practice critical thinking. Since the figures represent a diverse range of disciplines, teams must work together to pool their knowledge.	30 minutes
Final Quizardy We raise the stakes by offering one last chance to shake-up the scoreboard. Teams can wager points on one final question. Almost anything can happen, which keeps the game exciting!	10 minutes
Winning teams + wrap-up Your host will carefully tally up the points, announce the winners, and deliver debriefs for reflection. To immortalize the occasion, hostess will take a team photo, then lead an invigorating team cheer, ensuring a high note to conclude the event.	10 minutes
