Get ready to up your margarita game and elevate your team's virtual happy hour with our Margarita Making Class! Your team will have an unforgettable experience filled with learning new skills, delicious margaritas, and curated activities designed to bring them closer together.

Before your event, we ship each participant a margarita kit to make their own drinks. Most states can receive tequila with the shipment; for those who can't, we send everything else they need to craft margaritas at home while they supply two airline-sized bottles of tequila. Each kit is carefully curated to ensure a delightful and immersive cocktail-making experience from the comfort of home.

During the event, we come together in a virtual gathering where the real fun begins. Our expert mixologists will guide you through the process of crafting your margarita, sharing tips and tricks along the way. Whether you are a seasoned mixologist or a complete beginner, you will learn new techniques and explore exciting flavor combinations.

But it's not just about the cocktails. We've curated a range of interactive activities designed to teach your group about tequila and margaritas while keeping the energy high and the laughter flowing.

So, are you ready to take your margarita skills to the next level? Join us for our all-new Margarita Making Class, where mixology, games, and camaraderie blend together to create an unforgettable evening of fun and connection. Cheers to the best virtual cocktail class you've ever had!

Agenda

Welcome + intro At the start of the event, our friendly host bartenders will personally welcome each guest and give an exciting preview of the activities planned for the next 90 minutes.
