Available November 01

Your team will celebrate winter holidays from around the world through high-energy games and activities. Earn points, share memories, and celebrate together! Perfect for teams looking for light competition and fast-paced energy.

Each year our creative team re-imagines the Virtual Holiday Party experience, so whether it is your team's first or fifth party, there are plenty of delightful holiday surprises in store!

Players will race to be the first to answer in main room challenges, and bond with their teams in breakout room huddles. While strategizing and working through challenges, players learn about their teammates' holiday stories, traditions, and favorite things.

This year, teams will earn "team building bucks" with each merry mini-game won. The event culminates in a simulated gift auction where teams use those earned bucks to bid on fictional items like 1000 candy canes or an unusually large stocking in hopes of ending up with the priciest present haul.

Before wrapping up, your host names the victors – because of course, while the holidays are about celebrating with your community, winning feels pretty good too!

Add a cocktail kit or a tasty treat box to kick your festive celebration up a notch!

Agenda

Welcome + intro As attendees enter the virtual meeting space, our hospitable host will greet them warmly, delivering a thorough introduction to the event's structure and the thrilling activities on the agenda. This enthusiastic welcome sets the tone for next 90 minutes.	10 minutes
Holiday Pickle Hunt Gunter is BACK! Based on the German tradition of hiding a pickle around the holidays, this is a long-form game that keeps participants engaged during the event. Listen up or watch out for pickle rhymes, and you'll earn some extra points for your team if you catch any of the words scattered throughout the event that rhyme with the word "pickle".	5 minutes
Team formation Participants will split into breakout rooms for small group discussion and icebreakers. During this time, teammates will get to know each other and choose a festive team name.	10 minutes
Holiday Trivia A quiz-style throw down of the snappiest seasonal trivia questions to get you cozy and in the winter holiday spirit.	15 minutes
Ante Up Teams predict what the majority of teams said as answers to the ice breaker questions from team formation. They can place bets to earn extra teambuilding bucks for being right, but they have to weigh the risks because they lose any teambuilding bucks that they bet and are wrong about.	25 minutes
Holiday Gift Auction Using all of the teambuilding bucks they earned during the entire event, teams end the event with an auction. The goal is to bid on and win the most valuable items possible in order to win the game. Teams have to be strategic to get the best items or most items possible without getting outbid by other teams. To make matters even more tricky, this is also a mystery auction. We don't tell guests exactly what the items are, but give hints and riddles so that teams can try to figure out which items are worth bidding on.	25 minutes
